Rosenborg Castle in Copenhagen houses some of Denmark's greatest cultural treasures. The castle was built 1606-34 by Christian IV as a pleasure palace. In the basement you will find the Danish crown jewels and royal crowns. Kings garden Rosenborg is also a great place to walk around if the weather permits.

Amalienborg or Christian VIII's Palace.

The Amalienborg Palace houses the museum of the Danish Royal Family. The museum explores the history of the Danish monarchy over the past 150 years, and introduces visitors to the daily life of The Royal Family today.

Rest of the day on your own leisure.

Day 5

10:00-16:00 6 hrs Private Malmö & Dragør tour, Incl. transport in disposal, bridge fee, guiding service, local taxes, and fees.

Tour description: tour by car with photo stops and walking.

Transfer Cph- Dragør to visit an old fishing village nearby Copenhagen.

Back in history, Dragør Harbor has been one of the most important maritime cities in Denmark. Both in the latter half of the 18th century and again in the late 1800s, where the vast majority of the houses in the Old Town were also built, which has remained largely unchanged since 1850.

Next, continue our drive to the fascinating city of Malmö in Sweden by The Öresund Bridge, the 2nd longest bridge in Europe. In the Old Town, you will see the magnificent Town Hall, Kockska huset, Apoteket Lejonet and other historic buildings in Stortorget, and stroll through the bustling Lila Torg market square.

Another highlight will be Malmo Castle, which was built by King Christian III of Denmark.

It is the oldest preserved Renaissance castle in the Nordics and a great place to learn about Swedish-Danish history from medieval times to present day.

Included: Photosop near The Bridge, Free entry to St. Peter's Church, Turning Torso skyscraper and Western Harbor.

Day 6 10-16 6-7 hrs

Private Louisiana Museum of Modern Art + Hamlet Castle Tour, Incl. transport in disposal, guiding service, entrance tickets, local taxes, and fees.

Embark on an excursion of North Zealand arriving first at the port city of Helsingør, a bustling city where Danish and Swedish commute for work and leisure. Make a brief stop for coffee admiring the charming cobble streets while also enjoy the opportunity to marvel at the Little Mermaid statue. Thereafter, we will visit the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Kronborg Castle (with tickets).

Later, continue to Louisiana Museum of Modern Art (tickets included), which is located in Humlebæk, in a beautiful old park offering magnificent panoramic views of the Sound. The museum buildings lend themselves beautifully to the park, which is landscaped with open lawns, shady woods, a view terrace and a gorge down to the beach. The park provides a magnificent setting for Louisiana's large sculpture collection. Louisiana's collection of modern art dates from 1945 to the present day and contains more than 4,000 artworks within virtually all genres, emphasising painting and sculpture. Permanent highlights include the Giacometti Hall, the Jorn Room and the Kusama Installation.
